SUNDAY READINGS

1 Reading Ez 34:11-12. 15-17

As for you my sheep, I will judge between sheep and sheep.

Ps 22:1-3, 5-6, R/v 1

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

2 Reading 1 Cor 15:20-26, 28

He will hand over the kingdom to the God,
the Father, so that God may be all in all.

Gospel Mt 25: 31-46

He will take His seat on His throne of glory,
and He will separate men one from another.

The LORD
is my shepherd,
I shall not want.

Psalm 23:1

*Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed and very dear.*

What is the Kingdom of Christ the King?

*Here is a beautiful explanation given by Gerald Darring
(St. Louis University: Centre for Liturgy)*

The Kingdom of God is a space - it exists in every home where parents and children love each other. It exists in every region and country that cares for its weak and vulnerable. It exists in every parish that reaches out to the needy. The Kingdom of God is a time - it happens whenever someone feeds a hungry person, or shelters a homeless person, or shows care to a neglected person. It happens whenever we overturn an unjust law, or correct an injustice or avert a war. It happens whenever people join in the struggle to overcome poverty, to erase ignorance, to pass on the Faith.

The Kingdom of God is in the past (in the life and work of Jesus of Nazareth); it is in the present (in the work of the Church and in the efforts of many others to create a world of goodness and justice); it is the future (reaching its completion in the age to come). The Kingdom of God is a condition - its symptoms are love, justice and peace. Jesus Christ is king! We pray today that God may free all the world to rejoice in His peace, to glory in His justice, to live in His love.

As we celebrate the Kingship of Christ today, let us remember the truth that He is not our King if we do not listen to Him, love Him, serve Him and follow Him. We belong to His Kingdom only when we try to walk with Him, when we try to live our lives fully in the spirit of the Gospel and when the Gospel spirit penetrates every facet of our living. If Christ is really King of my life, He must be King of every part of my life and I must let Him reign in all parts of my life. By cultivating in our lives the gentle and humble mind of Christ, we show others that Jesus Christ in indeed our King and that He is in care of our lives.
