Sunday Reflection ~ weathering the storm!

It is likely that Mark's Gospel was written to the church in Rome, shortly after it had come through the persecution of the emperor Nero. If so, Mark's church would easily have recognised itself among the disciples in the boat, battling a gale, with the waves breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. Just as Jesus was asleep as the storm howled and the disciples concluded that Jesus didn't care for them, so Mark's church may have wondered during their own stormy ordeal whether the risen Lord was asleep, indifferent to their plight.

As a church we have been through difficult times; we have taken a battering, for various reasons. We too may be tempted to think that the Lord has forgotten about us and doesn't care. The message of today's gospel reading is that nothing could be further from the truth. The reason that Jesus was asleep in the boat as the storm broke wasn't that He didn't care for His disciples but that He had complete trust that God would preserve the boat in the storm. He rebuked His disciples for their lack of trust, 'How is it that you have no faith?' The Lord is never asleep to our plight; He is always with us in the storm and will never allow the storm to swamp the church. He does ask, however, that we keep faith in Him while the storm is doing its worst and not just in the calm after it.

Our faith does not preserve us from the storms of life, no more than it preserved Jesus, but it can enable us to remain at peace in the midst of the storm. Jesus rebuked His disciples for their lack of faith in God, their lack of trust. Jesus was with them; that should have been enough for them, even as the storm howled. Jesus is with us too as the risen Lord, as we battle with our own storms in life. If we keep our focus on Him at such times, we will come to share in His own peace and rest.
